

16 October 2022 | Ceremony for Theodoros Terzopoulos – receiving the third Yuri Lyubimov International Theatre Award in Tbilisi, Georgia

Group Photo of the Award Ceremony in Tbilisi

After Anatoli Vassiliev and Tadashi Suzuki the third Yuri Lyubimov International Theatre Award has bestowed to Theodoros Terzopoulos, the founder of the Theatre Olympics, eminent Greek theatre director, educator and leader of the Attis Theatre. The Ceremony was organized on 16 October in the Rustaveli Theatre in Tbilisi, with the presence David Sakvarelidze and Leven Khetaguri - President and General Secretary of the Georgian Centre, members of the Georgian Centre, Robert Sturua - World Theatre Ambassador, Jaroslav Fret - director of the Grotowski Institute, Fabio Tolledi - Vice President of ITI, and Tobias Biancone - DG of ITI, who presented the award to Theodoros Terzopoulos (all on Group Photo).

Theodoros Terzopoulos with Penelope Chatzidimitriou, Theatre Resarcher and Biographer of Terzopoulos.