

CV:

Born in Münster in 1957, Joachim Lux studied German and History at the Universities of Münster and Tübingen from 1976 to 1982 and directed theatre and music festivals there. From 1984 to 1999 he worked as a dramaturg, chief dramaturg and director in Cologne, Düsseldorf and Bremen. From 1999 to 2009 he spent ten years as part of the team of Artistic Directors at the Vienna Burgtheater, initially as a dramaturg, and later as a chief dramaturg.

Joachim Lux took over the role of Artistic Director at the Thalia theatre in Hamburg in autumn 2009. He held various lectureships and worked for the Salzburg Festspiele. Furthermore he has numerous publications, interviews, books, lectures and essays to his name. Since 2014 Joachim Lux is the president of the German ITI centre. The same year, he has been elected to the Executive Council at the 34th ITI World Congress in Yerevan, Armenia.”

Quote:

“I would like us to promote international exchange, discuss and develop the future of theatre and shape the profile of ITI worldwide.”