

“Is it true that you will always wait for me?”

Tuesday, 24 November, Rialto Theatre, 20.30 rialto.com

Wednesday/Thursday 25/26 November,
Pallas Theatre, 20.30 soldoutickets.com

Asomates Dynameis Dance Company announces “Is it true that you always wait for me? – live performance in Cyprus. A tribute to the citizens of emptied cities. At night the breeze brings their voices and songs to the neighbourhoods where they once lived. My mother’s stories about the extermination of Thessaloniki’s Jewish community in 1943, met Leon Saltiel’s book "Don't forget me"- Letters of three Jewish mothers to their sons from the ghetto of Thessaloniki. It struck me to the heart and became the base of this piece that aims to give a human face and a voice to those who perished.

Direction / Choreography: Andromachi Dimitriadou Lindahl

Music: 2nd String Quartet op. 13 by Felix Mendelssohn

Set / Costume design: Elena Katsouri

Lighting: George Lazoglou

Texts: extracts from Don't forget me - Letters of three Jewish mothers to their sons from the ghetto of Thessaloniki, curated by Leon Saltiel

Translation: Eleni Saltiel

Narrator: Vasilis Vasilakis

Fusionia Quartet: Marios Ioannou, Savvas Lagou, Sorin Alexandru Horlea, Robert Grod

Dance / co-creation: Maria Chrysostomou, Paulina Ioannou, Vicky Kalla, Aneesha Michael

Photo: George Stylianou

Graphic design: Ernst Lindahl

Production: Asomates Dynameis Dance Company with the support of the Cultural Services of the Ministry of Education, Culture and Athletics of Cyprus, within the Terpsichore 2020 program, the Rialto Theatre and the Pallas Theatre. The performance is also supported by the Embassy of Israel.

Contact: Asomates Dynameis: lindahl@cytanet.com.cy

Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/AsomatesDynameisDanceCompany/>

Photo Credit: Asomates Dynameis