SSCC congratulates its eminent Board member, Mrs. Ela Gandhi, on receiving blessing from Pope Francis on her visit to Vatican in recognition for her contribution to peace and for holding the torch of Mahatma Gandhi legacy in the world.
Further Senate support for the Manila Forum

Cecile Guidote Álvarez, the initiator of the Manila Forum and member of SSCC Board, Viktor Sebek and Valerio Ferri had a meeting with Vicente Sotto, the President of the Senate. Dr. Sebek thanked him for his video message to the SSCC Cartagena November 2018 Conference. The Senate President confirmed that the Manila Forum will also serve as the Public Senate Hearing, further enhancing the importance of the event. The Senate President is also a musician, a composer. It was decided that Edgar Avilán, SSCC Executive Director, also a composer and musician, will translate some of Senator Sotto’s songs in Spanish and have them performed in Colombia.

SSCC also met with Senator Cynthia A. Villar, Chair of the Environment Committee in Senate who has joined forces with the Senate Committee on Sustainable Development Goals under the Senator Pia Cayetano.
Support from the House of Representatives

Dr. Sebek and Valerio Ferri accompanied former Senator Heherson Alvarez and Mrs. Guidote at the meeting with Congressman Edgar M. Chatto, Chair of the Climate Change Committee on the House of Representatives. Congressman Chatto expressed his support for the SDG Festival and Forum and confirmed his attendance.

Participation from Colombia and the Caribbean

The SSCC is delighted that Professor Alfonso Munera Cavadía, eminent historian, the founder of the International Institute on Caribbean Studies, former Ambassador of Colombia to Jamaica, then to Trinidad and former Secretary General of the Association of Caribbean States (35 nations), has agreed to take a part at the Forum and Workshops.
Following a recent radio interview, the TV station of the Manila Times (newspaper established in 1898) had an one hour programme in which the host was former Senator and Minister, Mr. Heherson Álvarez, also a member of SSCC Board. Dr. Sebek and Valerio Ferri took part in the programme together with Mr. Frederick Asseline, the Chief climate change specialist in the Asian Development Bank.
