

International Dance Day 2026 Celebration
29 April 2026, Manila, Philippines

The International Theatre Institute (ITI) is pleased to announce that the main celebration of International Dance Day 2026 will take place on 29 April 2026 in Manila, Philippines.

Conceived as both an artistic and public encounter, the celebration will bring together professional dance artists, cultural practitioners, communities, and international representatives highlighting the diversity and vitality of dance as a universal language.

The event is organized by the Philippine Centre of ITI as a major national initiative within the global framework of International Dance Day, with the ITI General Secretariat supporting for international communication, global visibility, and coordination within the ITI Network.

The programme on 29 April will constitute the core artistic International Dance Day event associated with ITI Worldwide, featuring performances and artistic exchanges that celebrate the power of dance to connect people across cultures.

More detailed information about the celebration and the programme will be released in due course.

Delegations from ITI Centers and committees interested in attending the celebration are kindly invited to contact the ITI General Secretariat for further coordination.
