THE PERFORMANCES: INFORMATIONS (presented in order alphabetical order)

«And now, what are we doing?» | | Vaggelis Chronis | | Direction: Manos Karatzogiannis
A man who talks with his dead wife but he feels her as she is always with him. We don’t hear her voice but we can guess her answers in this strange game of human relationships where death may take apart two people but their love and their bonding is much more beyond it. It feels like the question “and now, what are we doing” is much more rhetorical, since the answer is well known not only for him who stays as also for her who has left.
Direction: Manos Karatzogiannis | Pianist on stage: Antonis Papakonstantinou | Painter on stage: Dinos Petratsos | Actor: Antonis Kafetzopoulos | With the participation of: Giolanda Balaoura

«Don Quixote» | | Nikos Kazantzakis | | Co-operation of Spyros Vrachoritis, Sissy Papathanassiou, Kazantzakis Editions
Obsessed with the chivalrous ideals touted in books he has read, he decides to take up his lance and sword to defend the helpless and destroy the wicked. And in that way his craziness is getting spread. Nikos Kazantzakis gives us his poetic glance at the story of Don Quixote, as a romantic fighter and ideal lover of the fantasy against the cruel and harsh reality.

«Euroroom» | | Dodo Gombár | | Direction: Helen Georgopoulou.
Stefan is Slovakian. Stefan is Roma. Stefan is European. Stefan is 33 years old. He is stealing, stubbing, doing prison, falling in love, playing music, playing box and discovering all the contradictions and inequalities in a Europe that insists on feeling proud of its solidarity.

«Commodity» | Natalia Katsou | Direction Lily Melene
What happens if we start with one, typical move? Touching the ground with our feet. A journey of transformations with a common target: to be a useful fabric, necessary and of added value.

«Goodmorning Week» (Youth Theatre) | Marigo Alexopoulou | Direction: Georgina Kakoudaki
Five students of Highschool who have a radio station, decide to present a theatre play, where the protagonist is an “ant... in despair”.

A monologue of a woman who, as a child—during war, - was refugee a for five years in Hungary. Now, in a psychiatric hospital, she always recalls that period of her life, that she never managed to get over.
Direction: Panos Kyparissis | Actor: Vassiliki Skalkou

«Tagebuch» | Zuzana Uličianska | Direction: Roubini Moschochoriti

«The day Gagarin died» | Viliam Klimáček | Direction: Menelaos Karantzaz
A play in three times: 1) 1968, after a nuclear explosion, the residents of Slovakia, who in the meantime have become a member of Eurasian Union, live exclusively in skyscrapers. 2) 1988, when a Russian military base is celebrating the 20 years anniversary since the death of Gagarin 3) 2018, when the first Slovakian astronaut has to be sacrificed for his country and for Europe.

86,400. That’s the amount in his will under one condition: the one who will manage to invest them in one day, will take the money. Hard. Even harder though is the fact that the two brothers will meet each other after 22 years. In their house on the beach with the seaweeds.

ANALOGIO FESTIVAL History

The Analogio Festival, a hub for drama, theatre and performing arts, is a non-profit organization founded in 2005 in Athens, Greece, by the artistic director Sissy Papathanasiou, aiming to develop and present new plays & performance works that experiment with the new writing experience.

“Analogio”, besides showcasing Greek plays [ancient & contemporary] and presenting international plays, has been a notable centre for discovering and supporting young talent and for promoting cultural exchanges, innovative creativity and inter-disciplinary dialogue.

So far, Analogio has worked with 800 artists, including 85 playwrights (most of them presented for the first time). We number: 130 productions of plays, 28 commissioned plays and performance works, 30 domestic and international artistic residencies, 4 international programs, a great number of rehearsed readings, workshops and co-productions, and a wide publishing programme.

We reviewed more than 2.500 plays through our open access program and we partnered with over 80 theaters, theatre groups, festivals and universities (Athens & Epidaurus Festival, National Theatre of Greece, Art Theatre, University of Montreal, Department of Music Studies-Athens University, Department of Theatre Studies of Thessaloniki and Napfion Universities, Sarajevo Festival, Undercloud Festival Bucarest e.t.c.). We welcomed more than 100.000 audience members and 200 volunteers to 25 editions of the festival since 2005 and we worked closely with 9 local communities in Athens and the Greek territory;

This year (2017), Analogio Festival became a member of EFA/EFFE (European Festivals Association/ Europe for Festivals- Festivals for Europe), the organization that was founded in Geneva 1952 with the aim of contributing to international exchange of knowledge and ideas, connecting festival’s organizations of some 40 countries.

Analogio serves as a hub; a platform of text/language research, proposing dialogue between theater and other arts and media.
